Villa's Troops In Hasty Flight

Slaughter Makes Gain; 8 to 4 Convict

NOTICES ARE SENT OUT BY REV. PETERSON TO VIOLATORS OF STATE LAW

The Rev. P. E. Petersen, pastor of the First Methodist church and president of the Good Government league announced today that eight notices had been served upon the owners along Railroad avenue and also the White House at the north end of Sixth street, demanding that they abate the alleged violation of the redlight law.

Monday, Peterson announced, he would take the matter up with District Attorney T. D. Johntson, when the prosecution of those who failed to obey the notices would be taken up.

Peterson returned today from Stockton where he spent some time investigating the conditions in that city. He said:

"Mr. Foltz, district attorney of San Joaquin county informed me that the campaign against the houses of ill fame was progressing most favorably. He stated that in every instance but two, the inmates of the places had left immediately after having the notices served. In the two cases where the notices were ignored, the district attorney brought action and won in both instances. Therefore it appears certain that our efforts to relieve the local situation will be successful."

WATER SYSTEM OF PULLMAN TO BE ENLARGED; PLAN HYDRANTS

A discussion of the feasability of installing more adequate fire protection for the Pullman district was held last night at the office of David Cameron. A petition has been presented to the council by the residents of the district asking that a fire system be installed.

Chairman Depney presided at the meeting. Fire Chief Lemoine gave a short talk but stated that owing to the fact that the council had taken no action on the petition that he was unable to give any data relative to the situation.

He is preparing data to install more hydrants in the district to improve the water supply.

The Pullman Improvement club has several sites for the location of the propposed fire house but as yet has not selected a definite location for the building in the event that the council should grant their request.

About twenty-five residents attended last night's meeting.

AGENT FOR SANTA FE TO GO SOUTH

M. T. Jolly, popular station agent for the Santa Fe at San Pablo will leave Monday for a vacation of a week. Mrs. Jolly will leave tomorrow for Stockton where her husband will meet her. The couple will then go to Los Angeles where they will stay until next Monday. During Jolly's absence, E. M. Macey will act as station agent.

MARFA, Tex., April 1.—Six inches of snow fell here last night and it was still snowing today.

JURY UNABLE TO REACH VERDICT; INTEREST IS KEEN IN CASE ACTION

(Special to Record-Herald)

OROVILLE, April 1.—With the jury standing 8 to 4 for conviction, the twelve men selected who hold the fate of the Rev. Madison M. Slaughter, charged with contributing to the delinquency of Gertrude Lamson, fifteen-year-old school girl, it was generally believed that the jury would fail to reach a verdict before late tonight, if at all.

The fourth ballot taken just before noon today showed eight for conviction and four for acquittal. On the third ballot taken at 10 o'clock last night, ten voted for conviction and two for acquittal.

This strengthens the belief of the hundreds watching the case, that the jury will be unable to reach a decision for many hours. Many are inclined to believe that the jury will "agree to disagree."

A sensation was created this morning, when the jury filed into the courtroom. It was thought that they had arrived at a verdict and the courtroom was hushed with a super-human quiet. However, the sensation failed to materialize the jury desiring to secure further instructions from the court.

A large number of wagers have been made, even money being offered that the jury would be unable to reach a verdict.

DeMartini Case Over to Tuesday

(Special to Record-Herald)

MARTINEZ, April 1.—The DeMartini case was today postponed until next Tuesday.

Martinez, April 1.—Judge A. B. McKenzie of the superior court, District Attorney T. D. Johnston and Attorneys Linn S. Church and J. E. Rodgers of the prosecution, Attorneys W. S. Tinning, M. R. Jones and W. H. DeMartini of the defense, the twelve jurors, Court Clerk Barclay, Court Reporter Miss Raffetto, Sheriff R. R. Veale, Undersheriff William Veale, Bailiff A. F. Browning, John DeMartini, the defendant, and others interested in the John DeMartini trial, left yesterday afternoon in automobiles to visit Danville in order that the jurors might see and inspect the premises of the Danville branch of the San Ramon Valley bank of Walnut Creek.

So much has been said by witnesses and the lawyers regarding the building, its location, the position of the safe in its relation to the windows, the screen on the windows and other conditions, that it was decided to let the jurors see all these things for themselves before being called upon to decide the innocence or guilt of the defendant.

Yesterday morning, Mr. Daley, a brother of Herbert Daley, was placed on the stand. He told of the actions of his brother on October 16th, 17th and 18th.

President Numa Boone of the San Ramon Valley Bank, was next placed on the witness stand. He said he has been associated with the bank since 1908 and has been president since 1912. He mentioned the names of all persons who have been employed at the Danville branch since his connection

CONSTABLE OF STEGE AND W. H. JOHNSON TO BE HELD FOR DEBT OF H. LOTTMAN

Constable Davis, of Stege and W. H. Johnson, formerly with the Stege Lumber company and now engaged in farming near Santa Rosa are held responsible for a note of $290 on a debt contracted by the late Henry Lottman of Stege, by the action of the court in San Francisco in a suit brought by William Royster company of that city.

On March 13, 1913, Lottman's place of business was attached for $290 by the Royster people. Johnson and Davis agreed to go on Lottman's bond for the money. By the decision of the court, Davis and Johnson are required to pay the costs of the court amounting to $26.50; the interest on the money which amounts to $90 and the principal, $290, making a total of $406.50.

Lottman died eleven months ago. Davis has not yet decided just what action he will take, awaiting word from Johnson. The notice of the decision of the court was served on Davis today by an attache of the sheriff's office.

SEEK GIRL WHO LEFT HER HOME

Sheriff Veale has requested the local police department to aid in the search for Rosi Davi, 16-year-old school girl, who ran away from the home of her parents in Pittsburg, March 20.

She is described as follows: Age 16 years, height about 5 feet 2 inches, weight about 125 pounds, dark complexion, black eyes, and stocky build.

When last seen she was wearing either black or white stockings, black pumps, dark blue dress, trimmed with white buttons, blue coat made of serge with a short belt and black velvet colar, and small black velvet hat.

GLAD IT COMES BUT ONCE A YEAR

"There's an auto accident down at the subway" came the voice of a sweet young thing over the telephone this morning.

Immediately six star reporters were chased off to the scene of action. But when they go there they found the subway the scene of a very peaceful everyday business corner.

An hour later, the phone rang again. "April Fool," said the sweet young thing.

How many time were you stung?

CHILDREN BURNED

SCRANTON, April 1.—Five children, all of the same family died today in a fire, which destroyed the home of Patrick Marion.

PAINTERS STRIKE

NEW YORK, April 1.—Twenty-five thousand Long Island painters struck for $5 instead of $4 and for an eight hour day.

INTEREST IS LACKING SMALL REGISTRATION

Little interest is being manifested by Richmond residents over the presidential primaries to be held May 2nd. At noon today, City Clerk A. C. Faris announced that but approximately 4300 has registered. He was of the opinion that the total registration for the primary election would not exceed 4600.

Registration will close promptly tonight and all voters are being urged to register.

Last year the total registration of the city was 6500.

RICHMOND THE HOST TO CIVIL WAR VETERAN; REFUSES AID

Richmond was host last night to a veteran of the Civil War. The veteran, Mark Sellers, boasting seventy-five rungs in the ladder of life, was greeted by a reception committee of which Patrolman Oliver Wylie was chairman. He was escorted to the city police station on the west side where he was greeted by Night Desk Officer Frank Standiford and Patrolman Livingstone.

Sellers explained that he was on his way to Yountville to spend a few weeks at the old soldiers' home at that place. This morning after a night's rest he stepped out upon the first lap of the trip.

"Certainly I am going to walk" he said. "I may be old in years but I'm just as young as any of you in body and heart."

Offers of assistance he turned aside.

"While I appreciate your kindness in offering me assistance," he said as he saluted the stars and stripes in the office at the station, "I cannot accept."

Then despite his advanced age he walked jauntily on his way.

HUSBAND HAS DESERTED HER IS BELIEF OF LOCAL WOMAN

Mrs. S. F. Campbell, wife of the former local blacksmith is planning to swear out a warrant for Campbell's arrest on a charge of desertion and failure to provide for herself and minor child. According to Mrs. Campbell, her husband had informed her that he "was tired of her" that he "no longer lover her as he loved another woman" and that "either he or she would have to get out."

Campell left his wife some time ago, she says, to go to Sacramento where he stated he planned to take up state land. Simultaneously with Campbell's leaving, Mrs. Campbell declares that "the other woman," wife of a trainman also disappeared.

Mrs. Campbell cites numerous instances of alleged mistreatment by her husband.

She has been advised to swear out a warrant for her husband, and will probably do so.

Campbell came into notoriety last July when his place of business was attached. He pleaded that illness made it impossible for him to work and that as soon as he was able he would pay the money due. The creditory agreed to this.

"My husband has been travelling with another woman," said Mrs. Campbell. "He said that he no longer loved me and that were it not for the law he would marry her. I received some money from the estate of my father and this was used for the paying of my husband's bills. Then we purchased a lot near Stege and erected a house. While I was away my husband entered the place and removed all of the furniture. The real estate company declares that this is a violation of the contract and I have been told that I will lose my home."

LEAVES FOR CHICO

Mrs. Mary Erwin of San Pablo has left for Chico where she will make her home with her son, Bob Erwin, former local newspaperman. The Erwin home has been leased to A. Matthews, an employee of the Standard Oil company.

CAPTURE OF BANDIT SOON IS EXPECTED

SAN ANTONIO, April 1.—Colonel Dodd has established his base at Guerrero and is sending detachments after the dispersed Villistas. General Funston today said that the fighting has not developed into a series of minor skirmishes, with small bands scurrying in all directions. He predicted that General Villa's capture is only a matter of days.

EL PASO, April 1.—Heavy rains prevailed today throughout the state of Chihuahua, Mex. Despite flooded gullies and slippery paths, American troopers, following the Guerrero battle Wednesday in which Villa was routed, were pursuing the bandit into the mountains.

Reports received here say Villa is trying to reassemble his forces.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 1.—With only a brief rest, Colonel Dodd's cavalry, to whom fell the honor Wednesday of dispersing 500 of Villa's men at Guerrero, again resumed the chase of the scattered bands, while supporting forces that had arrived covered the railroad toward Chihuahua, and smaller detachments of American troops began beating the country adjacent for signs of Villa.

Overnight dispatches to General Funston from Mexico told the manner in which General Pershing's punitive forces had deployed, but none brought additional details of the fighting at and about Guerrero. All bore filing dates of Thursday or early yesterday, permitting officers here to retain the hope that perhaps another successful encounter had been registered, or perhaps even the capture of Villa himself has been effected.

High expectancy prevailed at army headquarters, and every confidence was displayed in the ability of the officers and men at the front to drive Villa into the open if he has not already succeeded in making his way into the almost inaccessible mountains south and west of Guerrero.

Just where Villa went when the Americans charged his force at Guerrero is unknown here. Reports that he was carried away on a litter, that he rode off in a carriage, or that he was hiding in a cave of a mountain overlooking the battle between his men and those of Colonel Dodd, were characterized at headquarters as guesses.

No report to General Funston has stated specifically just where he was on that day or where he is now. Even the report that he is injured was not definitely stated, although General Pershing's reference to his injuries indicated that he believed the report.

Unofficial reports today indicate the possibility of an error as to his wounded condition. One of these reports, which was from a Mexican source, was that he was quite sound in wind and limb and that his own men had spread the report of his broken leg in order to distract the attention of the Americans.

Unofficially it was reported that the bullet which disabled Villa passed through the bones of his hip.

It was said at headquarters that just before Colonel Dodd began his fifty-five mile dash to Guerrero he was at Bachineva, not more than twenty-five miles away in a direct line. From Bachineva a trail extends in a southerly direction to Mai Paso, whom where another trail extends to Guerrero, northwest of Mai Paso. It was over this round-about route that he led his cavalry, in the opinion of army officers here, in order to attack Guerrero from the rear.

Mexican Consul Garcia announced today that he had received a report from the military commander at Chihuahua that the telegraph operator at Ocampo, Chihuahua, was in communication with Guerrero yesterday. The report of the Chihuahua commander said that in Villa's attack on Guerrero on March 27th there was many casualties on both sides and that the Villistas looted the town.

The report further states that the Villistas left Guerrero on the approach of the American forces, but were supposed to be in the vicinity. Villa was wounded in the leg, said the report, which added that after this information had been obtained communication was cut again between Guerrero and Chihuahua.

The report of the Chihuahua commander was apparently received by him before the engagement of the American troops with the Villistas.

General Funston's messages to General Persing included copies of the congratulatory messages received from the war department and the White House. These received early in the morning included one from a consular source, which contained no more details of the fighting about Guerrero than those already received.

Mrs. Brownie Stromberg, daughter of the late engineer by a former wife, contested Mrs. Wing's claim to the estate on the grounds that she was not legally wedded to Wing.

CELEBRATE THE FOURTH

Richmond is really sixteen years old at this time and during all the time of the city's existance as a city, town and hamlet it has never celebrated the Glorious Fourth of July, the Nation's Natal Day. There have been efforts on the part of fraternal organizations at different times to honor the birth of the nation, but Richmond as a people has never celebrated the day in a befitting manner.

But this year the city will hold a magnificent celebration of the Fourth of July. It will be conducted in the old-time-honored manner, with patriotic speeches, barbecues dancing, fireworks and everything tending to make the American Eagle scream. There will be all kinds of athletic sports and the doors of the city will be thrown wide open to the people from all parts of the state of California.

The business men of Richmond are behind the movement with money and moral support, which is as it should be. There is not going to be any movement or attempt on the part of anybody to commercialize the celebration and nobody contributing to the funds for the celebration will expect to receive a cent in return, directly. But it will pay thousands to each and every citizen indirectly in the way of the best kind of advertising. It will bring people to us from far and near and we will meet them on the common ground of American citizenship and they will be impressed with our loyalty of spirit to our state, nation and city and they will want to come here and reside.

And Richmond cannot afford to have anything but a great celebration and this of course will cost something, but it will be money well spent. So let everybody co-operate with the committees appointed by the mayor for the work at hand. These committees are all busy and they will be busy from this time until the Fourth of July. Make their labors as light as possible by a generous assistance.

PURE FOOD RESEARCH

The government is constantly on the job in the cause of pure food. The current activities in this direction of the bureau of chemistry are legion.

Studies are being made in the drying of potatoes, in the ripening of oranges, in the shucking of oysters and in the packing and refrigerating of fish, with a view to the introduction of the most sanitary and healthful methods.

Investigations are under way to determine the best way of feeding poultry, after receipt by the packer, for increase in weight and quality. A recently completed investigation dealt with the breakage of eggs in transit and led to definite recommendations—with a view of reducing an estimated $50,000,000 annual waste in eggs—on desirable improvements in transportation, storage and general handling of eggs.

What plants used for foods contain poisons and under what conditions is that poison likely to become active and dangerous? What foods of current use are the most nutritious and what foods not used are good and nourishing? What are the precise food values of foods and drinks of all sorts? What sirups are the best and how may their quality be improved? All of these and a multitude of others are questions upon which the scientists of the bureau of chemistry are working every day. Much of the settled fact regarding dietary matters, in daily use by physicians, is directly attributable to the labors of unknown government experts in the bureau of chemistry.

THE LESSON FROM CHINA

Poor, old China is not to have a monarchy after all. The president-dictator, Yuan Shi Kai announces that he has determined not to attempt to put into effect his announcement that he would ascend the "peacock throne," that it was all a mistake.

The trouble was that China was powerless before the demands of Japan. China has long been a peace-at-any-price nation. She has a negligible army and a navy that would not be able to seccessfully meet one modern battleship. With more than 400,000,000 industrious people inhabitating a rich country. China is helpless before prepared Japan, with only one-eighth as many people inhabiting a country comparatively sterile of natural resources.

Now and then, some enthusiastic Bryanite in congress asks, "Who is going to attack the United States?" They point to the fact that the natives of Europe are bleeding themselves "white as veal" in this war, and when it is over will be deficient in men and beggared for money.

The facts of history, however, are against the contention of the pacifists. Drained of gold the belligerents will be, beyond doubt, when peace is made, but they will not be drained of well-drilled, seasoned, fighting men. They will have arms and ammunition in abundance. The gold will be in the unguarded vaults of the United States.

It will be recalled that Alexander the Great began his military career for the purpose of conquering a few troublesome Greek states, and ended by conquering the civilized world. He grew stronger with each victory. One would have supposed that the fearful internal conflict produced in France by the revolution would not only have impoverished the country, but would have made successful war by it impossible. But out of it sprang Napoleon Bonaparte who carried his legions victoriously from Lisbon to Moscow and from the pyramids to the North sea.

At the end of the civil war, when it was supposed that our own country was exhausted. President Grant served notice on the French emperor that he must move his armies out of Mexico, and Louis Napoleon moved them, because he knew the United States had a million veterans ready to back the demand. This nation, at the end of four years of gruelling warfare, was better prepared for war than she ever was before or ever has been since.

When peace has come to Europe, there will be bigger armies in England than Great Britain ever had thought of mustering, armies in Germany big enough to overwhelm us in a month. There are armies in Japan big enough to advance unopposed from San Francisco to Chicago. Furthermore Great Britain, Germany and Japan have sufficient transports to land forces on the shores of this nation and hold their ground until the force could be augmented to a million men.

The position of the United States is little better than that of China, as far as immediate defense against invasion is concerned.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Well-known local druggist says everybody is using old-time recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite to impart color and a youthful appearance to the hair. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Advt.

MELOM IS CUT BY GAS DIRECTORS

At the regular meeting of the board of directors of the Pacific Gas & Electric company yesterday afternoon a dividend at the rate of 5 per cent per annum in cash was declared upon the common stock of the company. The first quarterly installment of 1¼ per cent on the common stock is payable on April 15 on stock of record yesterday.

After the meeting President Frank Drum said:

Since no decision has been rendered by the Railroad Commission in the matter of our application for leave to disburse 3 per cent in common stock as a stock dividend, that matter was not passed upon by the board. The present dividend is 1¼ per cent for the first quarter of the year in cash, and represents a regular quarterly disbursement.

AT RICHMOND THEATRE

Sunday vaudeville at the Richmond theater tomorrow promises the best show which has been seen at the popular playhouse for months. Manager Wilson has been busy securing the best acts now being offered on the big circuits and a strong combination of dance, song and monologue have been secured.

Tom Kelly, "The Irishman," will be a very strong feature with a fund of wit that furnishes millions of laughs during the program. Then there will be "The Juenets" in a wonderful acrobatic performance which is filled with thrills. Tom Whiteside in a comedy singing and dancing act combines the best of both.

Lovell and Lovell appear in an act where the heart throbs with warmth at the singing of the old songs sweetly and sympathetically. There will be a number of good pictures including, "The Bolt from the Sky" in three reels, "Fresh from the Farm" and "Col. Heeza Liar in the Wilderness."

STANDARD TO ADVANCE THE PRICE OF GAS; STARTS TODAY

Aviation stunts in the gasoline market are not without compensation altogether, at least as far as California is concerned, for the rapid rise in the price of the refined product has brought about another advance in price at the wells to producers of crude oil. The Standard Oil company of California, whose buying schedule is followed by all other refining companies, announces, effective today, a general advance in prices paid to producers in all of the state's oil fields.

The advance covers a range of from 5 cents to 17 cents a barrel over the prices reached on February 16th, when the last upward revision of the field buying schedule was announced.

Oil produced in the San Joaquin and Whittier-Fullerton fields, grading from 14 degrees to 24.9 degrees gravity, is 5 cents a barrel higher, the new prices ranging from a minimum of 58 cents to 65 cents. A premium of 5 cent a barrel is paid for each increase of one full degree in gravity over 17.9 degrees up to 24.9 degrees.

The premium of 25 degrees gravity and over is raised from 1 cent to 2 cents a barrel, indicating a heavy demand for desirable refining grades. The increased premium makes the advance on higher gravity products range from 6 cents to 17 cents a barrel.

Prices paid in the Ventura field, where all the oil produced is of light gravity, are the same as in the San Joaquin and Whittier-Fullerton districts.

MAY PROVE FATAL

When Will Richmond People Learn the Importance of It?

Backache is only a simple thing at first;

But if you find 'tis from the kidneys;

That serious kidney trouble may follow;

That dropsy or Bright's disease may be the fatal end,

You will be glad to know the following experience.

'Tis the statement of a Richmond citizen.

Philomena M. Brier, 511 Ninth St., Richmond, says: "Dropsy, which was shown by swellings of my limbs, shortness of breath and fluttering of my heart was my most serious trouble. I suffered from severe attacks of backache, my head ached often and I had dizzy spells and a tired, wornout feeling. Since I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills, I have used them whenever these attacks have come on me and in a short time they have fixed me up all right."

Price 50¢, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Philomena Brier had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. advt.

AT THE REGENT THEATRE

"The Vultures of Society," this is a realistic presentation of a phase of metropolitan life of today. It deals with the machinations of the masqueraders in society; with deeds committed in the dark, silent depths below the surface.

There are the society criminals who rob the homes in which they are guests.

There are the vultures, who hunt defenseless girls.

It treats of the starling adventures of a pseudo prince and the kidnaping of a real prince; of the abduction of a wealthy girl, held by society outriders for ransom.

"The Vultures of Society" enjoyed a successful week's run at the Portola theater, San Francisco two weeks ago.

A two reel Chaplin comedy will also be shown.

Each child attending the Sunday matinee will be given a free souvenir.

It's ten to one that the Electrically Lighted house will be sold or rented long before the one which does not have this modern improvement. "Is it wired for electricity?"—is the first question asked by the vast majority of prospective tenants. How will you answer it?

Prepare for the Renting Season---
Wire with Electricity

Many real estate men so appreciate the value of Electric Service that they do not attempt to sell or rent a house without first wiring it for Electric Light. See that your property is thoroughly modern—that it has Electric Light before the renting season is upon you.

TWO NEW MEN TO APPEAR WITH CHAMPS IN TOMORROW'S TUSSLE AT BILL LUCE'S LUCE DIAMOND

The teams will line up as follows:

RICHMOND ELKS	POSITION	SPERRY FLOURS
Artie Schimpff	Left Field	Red Lynch
Bill Daniels	Center Field	Boldt
Rod Murphy	Right Field	Butch Woodbury
Eddie Benn	Third base	Smith
Charlie Freine	Shortstop	Bull Croll
Christensen	Second Base	Walter Croll
Ingraham (Capt.)	First Base	Ryan
Cliff Cleek	Catcher	Pat McDonough
Burns, Gordon, Schinkle	Pitchers	Meikle, Lloyd

The appearance of two men in the uniform of the Richmond Elks will be watched with considerable interest by baseball enthusiasts. The new men are Artie Schimpff, who will try his hand in left field in place of William (Cutie) Cunningham and Charlie Freine, who goes into shortstop in place of Jack Conger.

There is no doubt but that both will make good in the local battle line. At any rate the boys want to be on the job and see for themselves.

Schimpff is a veteran at the game, having seen service with Salt Lake in the Pacific coast league and other fast clubs in organized baseball. His performance here last Sunday with the Elks stamped him as a player of ability.

Freine, too, is an experienced workman and should add strength to the shortfield which not taking any credit from Conger was a weak link in the club.

"Butch" Woodbury, who was with the Elks last season will appear for the Sperry Flour aggregation. "Butch" will be seen in left field and is said to be a much improved player.

The game will start promptly at 2:15 o'clock. General admission will be 25 cents and admission to the grandstand will be 10 cents.

Frank Gordon will be on the mound for the Elks and will be opposed by Meikle.

SECRETARY OF STATE BOARD OF HEALTH REPORTS TYPHOID FEVER AT MINIMUM IN CAL.

SACRAMENTO, April 1.—Typhoid fever will soon be one of the least important diseases in California, according to an announcement made today by Dr. W. A. Sawyer, Secretary of the State Board of Health. The reduction in the mortality for this disease during the past year is unprecedented, the rate having dropped to 9.7 per hundred thousand population, placing California in the front ranks of the states that are successfully combating the disease. In fact, according to the U. S. census, there were but five states in 1913 having typhoid mortality rates as low as 10 per hundred thousand population.

Since 1916, when the rate was 32.2 per hundred thousand population, there has been a reduction of 70 per cent in the typhoid mortality rate in California. This means that 3,193 deaths and more than 30,000 cases of the disease have been prevented. There were but 276 deaths from the disease in the whole state during 1915, while there were 376 deaths from the disease in 1914, the decrease in the rate for the single year amounting to 29 per cent.

Last year the California State Board of Health announced that it aimed to reduce the typhoid rate to 9.6 per hundred thousand population by 1918, three years hence. Its expectations have been tremendously exceeded, however, by almost reaching that goal in a single year.

Estimating the cost of each case of typhoid fever at $500.00, including loss of wages, doctor's, nurses' and hospital bills, etc., the prevention of 30,000 cases represents a saving of no less than $15,000,000 to the people of the state during the past nine years. Each case of typhoid fever causes on the average one month of sickness. On this basis, the prevention of 30,000 cases has prevented 2,500 years of suffering.

The number of cases of typhoid prevented during these years would represent a number equivalent to the population of a city like San Jose, Stockton, Fresno or Pasadena, according to the figures of the last U. S. census. The number of deaths prevented would represent a number equivalent to the population of a city the size of Merced, Ventura, Orange or Woodland, according to the census.

The inconvenience and suffering prevented can not be estimated through any computation involving figures representing money values. Such sugering can only be understood by persons who have spent many long hours of pain and weary days of convalescence from the disease. Nor can the after effects, which are often more disasterous to the future health of the individual, be reckoned with in any statistics.

These results in the prevention of the disease have been accomplished largely through the state supervision of water supplies and sewage disposal, inspection of summer resorts, supervision of milk and food supplies, distribution of typhoid vaccine, investigation of typhoid outbreaks and the control of typhoid patients and carriers.

With the good showing already made, the state board of health intends to increse its efforts to prevent still more cases of the disease. By continuing this work with redoubled effort, even greater results can be obtained. In fact, if the same preventive measures are applied with as great energy as during the past year, California will lead all of the states in typhoid control by 1918.
